

Dogsledding, near Vail, Colorado and You Drive the Sled!

Contributed by Mr Five Star

Here is a great find! You have heard about Dog sledding where you ride they drive. Several years ago I found a place near Leadville, Colorado (24 miles from Vail) where I was able to actually drive the Dog Sled myself. Since then I have taken many of my friends and family members here for the same experience. It sounds a little scary at first, but once you get the hang of it you will never want to be driven again. These folks are very professional and have great dogs. Here I am on the left driving the dog-sled with my daughter and grand daughter in 2005.

By the way they also offer one of the largest areas for Snowmobiling anywhere, over 40 miles of terrain with great equipment.

Alpine Snowmobiles & Dogsledding. Exciting Activities Appealing To All Ages!

Here is what I tell everyone who will listen to me about Alpine, Drive a little farther, pay a lot less, and have a great deal of fun. Here is an old expression, how about "Alpine puts you in the driver's seat". Well, at least you get the idea. Try it! I promise you will enjoy the experience.
